The motion for immediate consideration is GRANTED.

The motion to reopen case is treated as a motion for reconsideration of this Court's September 30, 2020 order and is GRANTED to the extent that this Court's September 30, 2020 order is VACATED. This matter will be submitted on the October 6, 2020 case call and will be decided without oral argument as neither party is endorsed.

It is further ordered that defendant-appellant Christine Skandis and attorney Mark Zietlow, co-counsel for plaintiff-appellee Eldean Company, shall each file a written statement in this existing appeal and provide the following information: I.) whether the April 6, 2020 order, which was entered when Skandis' bankruptcy was proceeding under Chapter 13, remained valid and effective after the conversion of the Chapter 13 bankruptcy into a Chapter 7 bankruptcy; II.) whether a stay was automatically put into place or ordered by the bankruptcy court when the Chapter 13 bankruptcy was converted into a Chapter 7 bankruptcy; and, III.) whether any stay that may have automatically entered or been ordered following the conversion of the case to a Chapter 7 proceeding has been modified or terminated. Additionally, Skandis and Zietlow shall each provide a copy of the order converting the Chapter 13 bankruptcy into a Chapter 7 bankruptcy and a copy of all bankruptcy orders, if any, that were entered after April 6, 2020 and address a stay of proceedings. The written statements and documents must be e-filed through the MiFILE system by 9:00 a.m. on Monday, October 5, 2020 and each party's filing must be served on the opposing party.
